by: Pressman, Aliza

9 781668 014530

FP 75,000 Let go of perfect and become a transformative, positive influence in a child's life while creating your own definition of success from developmental psychologist and podcaster Dr. Aliza Pressman. 5 PRINCIPLES OF PARENTING doesn't presume to tell you how to parent with "my way is right" advice because the science is clear: There's no one "right" way to raise good humans. No matter how you were raised, how your co-parent behaves, or how your kids have been parented up until now, you can start using 5 PRINCIPLES OF PARENTING to chart a manageable course for raising good humans that's aligned with your own values and with your children's unique temperaments. Whether you're in the trenches with a toddler or a tween...

Age of Magical Overthinking : Notes on Modern Irrationality

by: Montell, Amanda

FP 125,000 From the bestselling author of CULTISH and host of the podcast Sounds Like a Cult, a delicious blend of cultural criticism and personal narrative that explores our cognitive biases and the power, disadvantages, and highlights of magical thinking. In a series of razor sharp, deeply funny chapters, Montell delves into a cornucopia of the cognitive biases that run rampant in our brains, from how the "Halo effect" cultivates worship (and hatred) of larger than life celebrities, to how the "Sunk Cost Fallacy" can keep us in detrimental relationships long after we've realized they're not serving us. As she illuminates these concepts with her signature brilliance and wit, Montell's prevailing message is one of hope...

by: Fletcher, Joshua

FP 50,000 Psychotherapist and host of the self-help podcast Disordered Joshua Fletcher provides a candid, funny, and revealing look inside the mind of a therapist as he faces his own struggles while treating patients with anxiety disorders. Structured around four client case studies, Joshua Fletcher lifts the veil of secrecy around an often-misunderstood profession. He details, with care and compassion, his clients' nonlinear path to health and healing, as he works with them to overcome their anxiety. Along the way, Joshua chronicles the voices in his own head that act both as a hindrance and a guide in his treatments. He also educates his audience on anxiety and psychotherapy, explaining the origins of anxiety and the...

Better in Every Sense : How the New Science of Sensation Can ...

by: Farb, Norman

Renowned neuroscientists Dr. Norman Farb and Dr. Zindel Segal reveal how to break out of negative patterns by engaging your senses. For many of us, daily life has stopped making sense. Super-efficient routines that once served us well now stress us out. Patterns of judgment and negative thinking lead to downward emotional spirals. For others, life has simply lost its spark. Where does change come from when habit lets you down? When we're struggling with a problem, a bad habit, or life in general, we often think we need to be resilient by "toughing it out" or "trying harder." But when we do that, our brains double-down on the thinking patterns that got us stuck in the first place--even when they clearly aren't working for...

Climate Capitalism

by: Rathi, Akshat

9 781778 401855

Our age will be defined by the climate emergency. Contrary to the doomist narrative that's taken hold about the climate emergency, the world has already begun deploying the solutions needed to deal with it. On a journey across five continents, Climate Capitalism tracks the unlikely heroes driving the fight against climate change. From the Chinese bureaucrat who did more to make electric cars a reality than Elon Musk, to the Danish students who helped to build the world's longest-operating wind turbine, or the American oil executive building the technology that can reverse climate damages, we meet the people working to scale technologies that are finally able to bend the emissions curve.

Drink in the Summer : A Memoir of Croatia

by: Fabijančić, Tony

9 781771 993807

Since childhood, Tony Fabijancic has travelled frequently to Yugoslavia and Croatia, the homeland of his father. He spent time with his peasant family in the village of Srebrnjak in the north and escaped to the Adriatic islands in the south where he could break free from the constraints of everyday life. Those two worlds - the north, marked by the haunting saga of family life, its history and material practices, and the south, a place defined by travel and escape - formed the two halves of Fabijancic's Croatian life. Over time, he observed Srebrnjak become a white-collar weekend retreat, the community of peasants of the 1970s, to which he was first introduced, only a distant memory. From the continental interior of green...

Listen : On Music, Sound and Us

by: Faber, Michel

FP 75,000 Lyrically woven and deeply evocative, Michel Faber's non-fiction debut reflects his lifelong passion for music of all kinds. LISTEN will change your relationship with the heard world. This book is, at its core, about music and the people who listen to it - your friends, your neighbors and you. A fresh approach toward our cultural and sensical relationship to sound, this melodic examination of the world of music explores two big questions: How do we listen to music and why do we listen to it in the first place? From a range of factors that shape our experience of sound - biology, age, illness and more - LISTEN challenges the very dichotomy between "good" and "bad" music.

Other Significant Others : Reimagining Life with Friendship at t...

by: Cohen, Rhaina

9 781250 280916

FP 75,000 A powerful narrative on platonic partnerships and how the thrill, intimacy, and commitment we seek is often found through meaningful friendship. NPR's Rhaina Cohen invites us into the lives of people - spanning age and religion, gender and sexuality and more - who have defied convention by choosing a friend as a life partner. Their riveting stories unsettle widespread assumptions about relationships and reveal how freeing and challenging it can be to embrace a relationship model that society doesn't recognize. And they show that orienting your world around friends isn't limited to daydreams and episodes of The Golden Girls, but actually possible in real life.

Project Unlonely : Healing Our Crisis of Disconnection

by: Nobel, Jeremy

9 780593 1191941

FP 75,000 Insight into our new world of loneliness that offers solace, hope, and solutions. Even before 2020, chronic loneliness was a private experience of profound anguish that had become a public health crisis. Since then it has reached new heights. Loneliness assumes many forms, from enduring physical isolation to feeling rejected because of difference, and it can have devastating consequences for our physical and mental health. As the founder of Project UnLonely, Jeremy Nobel unpacks our personal and national experiences of loneliness to discover its roots and to show how we can take steps to find comfort and connection.

Purest Bond : Understanding the Human-Canine Connection

by: Golbeck, Jen

9 781668 007846

FP 60,000 A feel-good, comprehensive exploration of the profound bond between humans and dogs from Jen Golbeck, the “internet’s dog mom” behind the massive social media platform The Golden Ratio, and Stacey Colino, an award-winning science writer. Dogs have been considered people’s best friend for thousands of years, but never has the relationship between humans and their canine companions been as vitally important as it is today. With all of the seismic shifts in today’s world, rates of anxiety and depression have been skyrocketing, and people have been turning to their dogs for solace and stability. Amidst these dire realities, something wonderful has taken shape. In the US alone, dog adoptions doubled during the...

Quantum Body : The New Science of Living a Longer, Healthier...

by: Chopra, Deepak

9 780593 579985

FP 35,000 In an unprecedented collaboration between three of today’s most powerful minds, Deepak Chopra, M.D., teams up with physicist Jack Tuszyński, Ph.D., and endocrinologist Brian Fertig, M.D., to bring readers a visionary work that delves into the innovative world of quantum science and shows how unlocking its secrets can revolutionize how we live and age - and, ultimately, how we can eradicate disease. The key is the quantum body. Unlike our physical body, which is subject to aging, injury, and decay, the quantum body exists on a subatomic level and is the infinite, invisible source of everyday reality that affects your thoughts, feelings, sensations, and biological responses. Without your quantum body...

Rethinking Diabetes : What Science Reveals about Diet, Insulin...

by: Taubes, Gary

9 780525 520085

FP 75,000 An eye-opening investigation into the history of diabetes research and treatment by the award-winning journalist and bestselling author of WHY WE GET FAT. In RETHINKING DIABETES, Gary Taubes explores the history underpinning the treatment of diabetes, types 1 and 2, elucidating how decades-old research that is rife with misconceptions has continued to influence the guidance physicians offer - at the expense of their patients’ long-term well-being. The result of Taubes’s work is a reimaging of diabetes care that argues for a recentering of diet - particularly, fewer carbohydrates and more fat - over a reliance on insulin. Taubes argues critically and passionately that doctors and medical researchers should...

Right Kind of Wrong : The Science of Failing Well

by: Edmondson, Amy C.

9 781982 1195069

FP 125,000 A revolutionary guide that will transform your relationship with failure, from the pioneering researcher of psychological safety and award-winning Harvard Business School professor Amy Edmondson. We used to think of failure as the opposite of success. Now, we’re often torn between two “failure cultures”: one that says to avoid failure at all costs, the other that says fail fast, fail often. The trouble is that both approaches lack the crucial distinctions to help us separate good failure from bad. As a result, we miss the opportunity to fail well. After decades of award-winning research, Amy Edmondson is here to upend our understanding of failure and make it work for us. In Right Kind of Wrong...

Scarcity Brain : Fix Your Craving Mindset and Rewire Your Habits...

by: Easter, Michael

9 780593 236628

FP 75,000 Are we hardwired to crave more? From food and stuff to information and influence, why can't we ever get enough? Michael Easter, author of COMFORT CRISIS and one of the world's leading experts on behavior change, shows that the problem isn't you. The problem is your scarcity mindset, left over from our ancient ancestors. They had to constantly seek and consume to survive because vital survival tools like food, material goods, information, and power were scarce and hard to find. But with our modern ability to easily fulfill our ancient desire for more, our hardwired "scarcity brain" is now backfiring. And new technology and institutions - from dating and entertainment apps to our food and economic systems - are...

Speak the Blessing : Send Your Words in the Direction You Want

by: Osteen, Joel

9 781546 006817

Your words are like seeds. Every time you say them, they're taking root and growing. Are you planting good seeds? Are you seeing the increase, the health, the relationships, and the happiness you dream about? If not, check out what you're saying. Whether you realize it or not, the words you speak today are setting the direction for the rest of your life. In SPEAK THE BLESSING, NYT bestselling author Joel Osteen offers you unique insights into this profound truth: Your words have creative power. When you discover the power of speaking what God says about you, you give those words the right to come to pass. There is a miracle in your mouth. There is healing in your mouth, freedom in your mouth, and new levels in your mouth.

Third Millennium Thinking : Creating Sense in a World of Nonsense

by: Perlmutter, Saul

9 780316 438100

FP 45,000 Based on a wildly popular UC Berkeley course, a primer on how to think critically, make sound decisions, and solve problems - individually and collectively - using scientists' tricks of the trade. In our deluge of information, it's getting harder and harder to distinguish the revelatory from the contradictory. How do we make health decisions in the face of conflicting medical advice? Does that article on GMOs even show what the authors claim? How can we navigate the next Thanksgiving discussion with our in-laws, who follow completely different experts on climate? In THIRD MILLENNIUM THINKING, a physicist, a psychologist, and a philosopher introduce readers to the tools and frameworks that scientists have...

Water Confidential : A Memoir about First Nations' Drinking Wa...

by: Blacklin, Susan

9 781773 861319

The shocking truth about Canada's ongoing water crisis and the government's failure to provide safe drinking water to First Nations communities. In WATER CONFIDENTIAL, Susan Blacklin (formerly Sue Peterson) revisits the important work of her late ex-husband, Dr. Hans Peterson. Beginning in 1996, Peterson, growing frustrated with his work in government funded research in Saskatchewan, brought attention to the desperate need for equal access to safe drinking water after a health inspector encouraged him to visit the Yellow Quill First Nation. In response to the issue, he developed biological technology for effective water treatment, still in use today. In this passionate and timely memoir, Blacklin shares her experiences...

Why We Read : On Our Lifelong Love Affair with Books

by: Reed, Shannon

9 781335 007964

FP 50,000 A hilarious and incisive exploration of the joys of reading from a teacher, bibliophile and Thurber Prize finalist. We read to escape, to learn, to find love, to feel seen. We read to encounter new worlds, to discover new recipes, to find connection across difference or simply to pass a rainy afternoon. No matter the reason, books have the power to keep us safe, to challenge us, and perhaps most importantly, to make us more fully human. Shannon Reed, a long-time teacher, lifelong reader and The New Yorker contributor, gets it. With one simple goal in mind, she makes the case that we should read for pleasure above all else. In this whip-smart, laugh-out-loud funny collection, Reed shares surprising stories from...

Why We Remember : Unlocking Memory's Power to Hold on to ...

by: Ranganath, Charan

9 780593 862728

Memory is far more than a record of the past - in this groundbreaking tour of the mind and brain, one of the world's top memory researchers reveals the powerful role memory plays in nearly every aspect of our lives, from learning and decision-making to trauma and healing, and helps us take control of our unconscious mind to live happier, more deliberate lives. We are in many ways creatures of memory and only when we understand the mechanisms of memory can we truly understand ourselves and our motivations, and use our knowledge of those mechanisms to our advantage while avoiding their pitfalls. Why We Remember teaches the principles behind memory storage and retrieval and explains how our memories are always changing.
